History was never so fascinating, John Keay has a knack with words and facts. He chisels them, embellishes them with interesting anecdotes, polishes them and finally leaves it to the reader to paint his own picture on it. Vivid, sprawling, ambitious and worthy of an epic. Truly is a classic and leaves the reader wanting for more.

India: A History book by John Keay
John Keay does remarkable justice to India Since he has to deal with roughly 10 years of Indian history to a page, Keay has to maintain a rattling speed. In the time scale of Indian history he accords the British period the importance it deserves; or doesn't.
