The Member of the Wedding is a 1946 novel by Southern writer Carson McCullers. It took McCullers five years to complete, although she interrupted the work for a few months to write the novella The Ballad of the Sad Café. In a letter to her husband Reeves McCullers, she explained that the novel was "one of those works that the least slip can ruin.

Searing and sad, The Member of the Wedding is a deceptively simple coming-of-age tale set in the South during the midst of WWII.

Frankie's a twelve-year-old white tomboy on the cusp of thirteen who wants nothing more than to run away from her distant father and live with her soon-to-be-married brother and his partner.
